

The Fringes of Adaptation

Postgraduate Conference

De Montfort University

Leicester, Thursday 1st March 2012

Papers are invited for a one-day conference at De Montfort University on 'fringe areas' of adaptations, elements often overlooked in the study of screen adaptations. We welcome papers on areas such as costume, music, soundtracks, gaming, franchising, merchandising, casting, locations, promotions, authorial interventions, or anything else that has normally been forgotten in mainstream work in adaptation studies.

Proposals should be sent to:

Deborah Cartmell

by Friday 2nd December 2011.
